Registrations open for IndiaSkills 2020

Dr. Mahendra Nath Pandey, Hon'ble Minister of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship announces the opening of online registrations for IndiaSkills 2020, a biennial competition to scout talent from the country, offering them a platform to showcase their skills at national and international competitions. Winners of IndiaSkills competitions will compete at WorldSkills International Competition Shanghai 2021.

A vibrant promotional poster for IndiaSkills 2020. The background is a bright orange with a halftone dot pattern. At the top, three individuals are shown: a man in a white shirt and green pants on the left, a woman in a blue polo shirt with a yellow star in the center, and a man in a blue polo shirt with a yellow star on the right. They are all giving thumbs up. Surrounding them are various white line-art icons representing different skills: gears, a wrench, a fork, a knife, a spoon, a pair of scissors, a sewing needle and thread, and a pair of boxing gloves. The central text reads "INDIA KE SKILLSTAR" in a large, stylized font with a blue and orange gradient and a white outline. Below this, "GEAR UP!" is written in a bold, yellow, blocky font with a blue outline. Underneath, "REGISTRATIONS ARE OPEN FOR INDIASKILLS 2019" is written in a blue, outlined font. Further down, the text "Showcase your skills at the national level, Represent India at WorldSkills Shanghai 2021, Register now and experience world class learning" is displayed in a smaller, black font. Below that, the hashtag "#INDIAKESKILLSTAR?" is written in a blue, outlined font. At the bottom, a blue button with white text says "REGISTER NOW!". The footer of the poster contains the website address "To know more go to : www.worldskillsindia.co.in".
